

NEWSTEAD WOOD SCHOOL

"creating opportunities for success"

8 July 2026

Dear Parent/Carer,

Year 9 Trip to Bletchley Park – Monday 13 July

I am writing with the final arrangements for our trip to Bletchley Park on Monday 13 July.

The coach will depart from the Tennis Centre at Newstead Wood School at 8.00am sharp (not Sainsburys, Pallant Way, Orpington as previously advised). If you are driving your daughter to school, please drop her off as usual and allow her to walk to the Tennis Centre to avoid congestion. Your daughter should be at school and ready to board the coach at 7.45am.

The coach will depart Bletchley Park at 2.40pm and will bring the students back to the Tennis Centre. Students will advise you of a precise arrival time en route, but we hope to be back at 4.30pm, when students will be dismissed.

It is forecast to be very warm on Monday so students may wear their own clothes. They should also bring a water bottle and a packed lunch. There are water stations around the museum where they can refill their bottles. They should bring something to write with and if they wish to purchase anything from the shop, money or a payment card.

We are very much looking forward to visiting Bletchley on Monday and learning more about the code breaking work that went on there during WW2.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs N Smith
Head of History

Headteacher: Mr Paul Norman MA, MSc, BSc (Hons), PGCE
